

Who We Are

We're a team and although we're geographically diverse, we're focused on the 'ties that bind' us together:

Look who's behind Colorworks:

Chairman & Founder: Donald G. Konantz

Don Konantz has been in a leadership position of a franchisor operation for almost twenty five years and has served as Chairman of Colorworks since its inception. As a university student, Don developed one of the first operations of College Pro Painters in the west and after two years joined the management team as Executive Vice President and developed College Pro to become the largest painting company in the world. Don returned to school in 1989 to earn a masters degree in business from the Ivy Business School at the University of Western Ontario. Don and his wife Catherine have 4 children.

President: Kevin Carter

After graduating from university with a BPhE, Kevin joined College Pro Painters and soon became Vice President. After some years in this leadership position, he was on the founding team of Certa-Pro Painters, a full time commercial painting franchise system which has grown North America wide. Kevin has also been involved in retail, owning and operating a 16,000 square foot, award winning hardware store for 8 years. Kevin enjoys coaching and playing hockey and serves his local community as an active member of the Rotary Club. Kevin and his wife Sandra have 2 children.
