

Thomas Choo

After personally receiving a superior workmanship reference from an acquaintance in the automobile industry, I asked Bill Hamilton of Colorworks to improve the appearance of my Audi V8 Quattro. Bill punctually began work at the location of my choice, reviewed the car with me and in a very accommodating, courteous and professional manner, and then proceeded to do an excellent job. As a very particular car owner and hobbyist, I recommend Bill's business acumen and auto repair skills highly.